

We Just Met

My best friend's sister
Dances in her white dress
But I'm sitting this one out
I'm gonna stay right here
Talking to you
Like there's no one else around

I just learned your name
But I need to know more
Our time is slipping away
So many thoughts running through my head
That I can't bring myself to say

Chorus:

You only got one shot at a first impression
Don't wanna come on too strong
So if you're the one I've been waiting for
I should probably hold my tongue
But if I don't say what's on my mind
I'll lose the only chance I'll ever get
Should I tell you what I'm feeling even though
We Just Met

I can't bring myself to dance
Even though my friend's the groom
I've got two left feet
You say you do too

I don't want our time to end
Maybe it's the wine
But I feel a spark tonight
It's the band's last song and my last chance
To tell you what I feel inside

(Chorus)

Can you tell (can't you tell)
By my stare (by my stare)
He's the only one I see
Time is now (time is now)
I can't wait (I can't wait)
To tell him what he/she means to me

(Chorus)

So glad I told you what I'm feeling even though
We Just Met
