

You and Only You

I need something
I can't live without
So I'd walk a million miles
Till my shoes are worn out
If you asked me to

I need something
Oh I think I would die
If you gathered your things
And walked out of my life
If you wanted to

I'll dance with the devil
I'll conquer the kings
I'll fight Hercules
I'll do anything
For you and only you
For you and only you

I need your eyes
When I can't see
I need your lungs
So I can breathe
and when the day is through...

I need your voice
The whisper "goodnight"
And I need your body
To keep me alive

I'll dance with the devil
I'll conquer the kings
I'll fight Hercules
I'll do anything
For you and only you
For you and only you

I'd fly to the sun
I'd dance on the flames
The best part of it is
I know you'd do the same
For me and only me
For me and only me
