

Good Girl

I am an angel
Sent down from Heaven
You say I can do no wrong
Do you see my halo?
My clean and pure white soul?
I've always been kind to you

Maybe a little too kind
You think you can hold me down
Well baby not this time
I'm gonna stand my ground

CHORUS:

I am not your baby, not your sweetie pie
And I won't give in to the things you want tonight
I did all the right things to keep you satisfied
But now It's time to draw the line

I've a reputation for following the rules
But I'm smart enough to break away from you
Just because you want me, doesn't mean I'm yours
'Cause I am not you GOOD GIRL anymore

I should've known that there was something wrong
By the way you looked at me, by the way you talked
I needed to escape from overbearing hands
Now I won't obey your every command

Now I'm a little less kind
You think you can hold me down
Well baby not this time
I'm gonna stand my ground

CHORUS

Used to be your good girl
Livin in your bad world
I was tryna save you
But you know that now you're your bringin me down
I just gotta let go
Time to ride it solo
Now it's time to say no...
